

Getting an RDHPCS Account

Please ensure that you have completed your background paperwork before submitting for an RDHPCS account.

You should either have a valid CAC or have successfully submitted your e-QIP form.

See the suitability check link for more detail.

Before you can be granted access to any RDHPCS systems, you are required to complete the following components:

- Have an active NOAA email account
- Complete a Suitability Check
- Complete ITSAC training within the last year

You will need to take the NOAA Security Training. This is mandatory on an annual basis. You will be requested to go to the following website:

<http://noaa.learnsecuritywith.us>

- Agree to the policies and procedures

Go to the Account Management Information (AIM) system and logon with your NOAA credentials

<https://rdhpcs-s.noaa.gov/acctmgmt/>

Click on the following to request access to a project:
